

JIMENA CALDAS

MANAGER

Profile

Jimena Caldas is part of the Transfer Pricing team. She specializes in economic consulting, project documentation, audit support, and valuation services for companies.

She holds a degree in Economics from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (PUCP), a specialization in Corporate Finance from the Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas (UPC), and is an MBA candidate at the Pacifico Business School.

She has over twelve years of experience in developing documentation projects, consulting, and transfer pricing audits for local and international business groups.

Previously, she worked as a Transfer Pricing Manager at EY and Basefirma (being recognized as a distinguished figure in 2019 and 2020) and as a Senior Consultant at EY and Deloitte. In these roles, she was responsible for transfer pricing projects for companies in various sectors, mainly consumer goods, energy and oil, and healthcare.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (2010).

Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas - UPC
Specialization in Corporate Finance

Pacific Business School
MBA candidate

Practice Areas

Transfer Pricing
Local and International
Audits

Languages

Spanish
English